Home School Agreement

Excellence Through Endeavour

A CONTRACT BETWEEN STUDENT, PARENT AND SCHOOL

Student's name (print):

RTS is an inspiring, welcoming place where people are valued as individuals, recognised for their talents, supported in their endeavours and always challenged to achieve their very best. At RTS we strive to develop confident and happy students who are lifelong learners with an insatiable curiosity about the world around them, prepared for the next stages of their lives. We are committed to providing equal opportunities for all young people to learn, participate in the wider life of the school and have a right to access the curriculum.

The RTS Way - Our Values

The contract between school, parents and students is essential in fostering our core values and developing students that are fully included within the school community and take every opportunity afforded them to achieve 'excellence'.

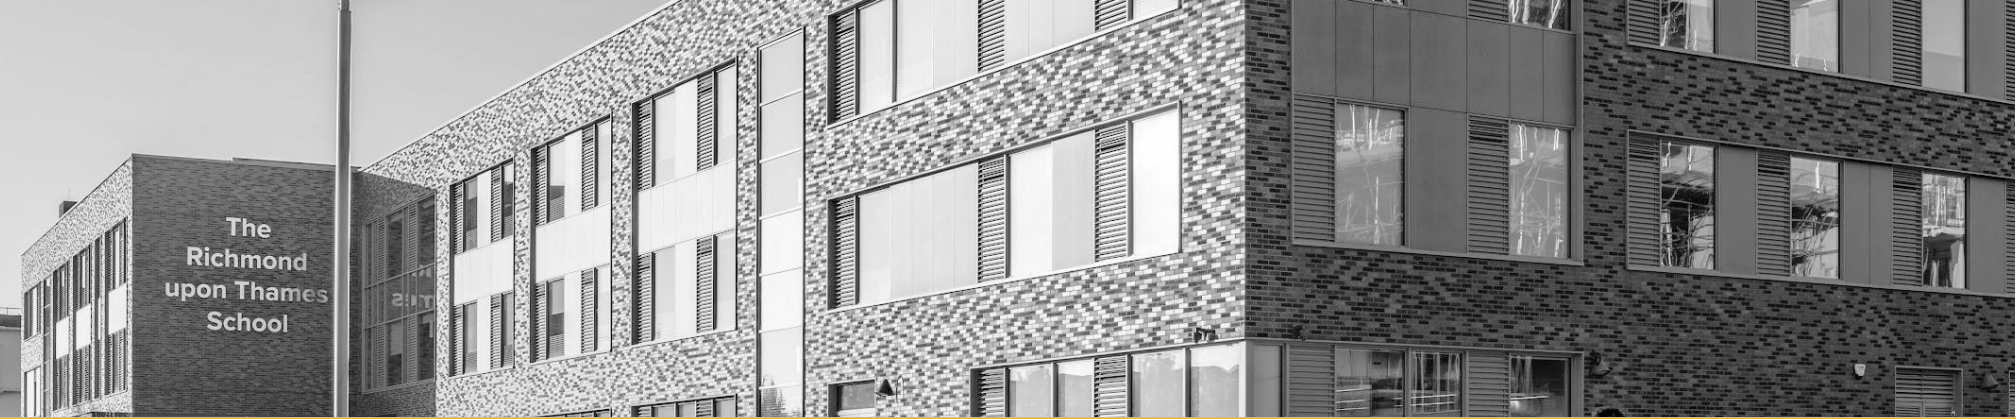

To this end we ask all parents/carers and students to sign this contract to show their commitment to following the content it sets out.

School commitments

We will...

- Provide a high quality education with excellent teaching and learning experiences
- Provide a safe community based on our core values
- Treat you with respect at all times, be clear in our expectations and consistent in applying them
- Support you and your family through difficulties and work to overcome problems
- Support you in being true to our word
- Provide you with feedback that allows you to improve your work and readiness for adult life
